Fourth Quarter 2007

Homecoming 2007 at Concord

Rep. Tim Spear spoke to about 50 people on Saturday, 15th November 2007 at the 13th annual homecoming held at the only known remaining Primitive Baptist meeting house in Washington County . A non-profit organization started in the 1990s sponsors the yearly meeting held the third Saturday each September.

With a little help from a friend, Rep. Spear prefaced his remarks to the "Concord Bunch" with a bit of family genealogy. Loretta Phelps had traced the ancestors of Spear's wife, Judy Davenport Spear, to Concord ancestors. Her fourth-great grandfather had been a member of the Primitive Baptist Church at Concord, located between Cherry and Creswell.

Rep. Spear, former Washington County Clerk of Court, said he felt privileged to serve the people of Washington County and the state. He described the process involved in getting laws established in the NC Legislature. He provided detailed information about the state budget, including items of special interest, including education, health care, the environment, public safety, and people in the country illegally.

Spear was introduced by Assistant Clerk of Court Brian Keith Phelps. Phelps presented Spear and his wife, Judy, a lifetime membership in Concord Primitive Baptist Church Preservation Society, Inc. (CPBCPS, Inc.) and a copy of the church conference minutes spanning almost 200 years.

James C. Davenport opened the homecoming with a welcome and a prayer. He paid tribute to the memory of the late Wilson Oliver, a dedicated member and supporter of the group's effort to preserve and maintain the old meeting house, standing on property deeded in 1808. He dedicated the singing of Wilson's favorite hymn, "Amazing Grace" to his memory and expressed appreciation to his family for their continued support.

Harrison Phelps recognized guests including several attending Concord for the first time. Friends presented gifts to be used for preserving the meeting house during the singing of another old hymn, "Faith of Our Fathers."

The program concluded with the singing of "How Great Thou Art " and the benediction. A covered dish dinner was held in the fellowship hall of Mt. Tabor FWB Church. (Shirleyan Phelps, Editor)

Member News

We were saddened to read in an area newspaper of the death of Rodney Kenneth Deshields. Rodney and his wife, Maude, were dedicated members of WCGS and actively supported its work for years. From Rodney's obituary:

A graveside service with military honors (will be) conducted today at 1 p.m. in Albert G. Horton Memorial Veteran Cemetery, Suffolk, Va.

Mr. Deshields was born in Morristown, Ohio,. He had been a resident of Chesapeake, Va., for 58 years. He was a Marine veteran of World War II, seeing action on Iwo Jima and receiving the Purple Heart. He was married to Maude Harris Deshields, who survives. (They were married 64 years.) He owned and operated Tidewater Insurers for 35 years. In his spare time, he was passionate about family genealogy and traveling.

More Member News:

The article focuses on the positive changes she has brought out in Beaufort County, but concludes with her statement about loving history. The Washington Daily News recently featured Helen Davenport Gautier on its front page with an article titled "Old Ford widow has brought out positive changes in Beaufort County." It goes on to describe how Helen started an Alzheimer's family-support group. She is a familiar face (and name) among members of WCGS as well as genealogical and historical groups in neighboring Beaufort, Martin, Hyde and Tyrrell Counties. She notes they have "done an excellent job....We can go back and research who we are and where we came from. All the families that stayed in eastern North Carolina kept it going. They were instrumental in bringing about change." Helen loves to share the results of her research and is super about going straight to the horses' mouth to get first hand information or oral histories from family, friends or even total strangers.

Helen and her late husband, Mac Donald "MC" Gautier were tobacco farmers. She no longer farms and her home is in or near the path of the US Hwy 17 widening. She also lives almost in the shadow of Old Ford Church of Christ where she is and has been an active member. We commend Helen for her contributions to WCGS members and to her neighbors, where ever they may be. She is a positive role model for all of us. We need others willing to share.

Queries:

(1) Dear Shirleyan, Thanks for your quick response to my request for Vol IV of the cemetery records. By all means use my letter as a query in the newsletter. How may I join the WCGS ? I did receive a newsletter a couple of years back. I have many childhood memories of Plymouth and attended 1st -3rd grades at the old Plymouth Elementary and 4th grade at the high school. My parents 1st lived across the street from the elementary (in the home next to the church) and then at 620 Washington St. right next to the high school. We moved to Macon, Ga. after my 4th grade. Since then I've been in Plymouth maybe twice. The last time I was there was with my wife and our daughter Eva Ruth. I went alone to the BATEMAN -SANDERSON Cemetery on Golf Rd. . In the afternoon we went out to Sts Delight in Westover & the old White Marsh Church (now called First Zion Grove Baptist) I'm sure Plymouth is quite different by now. When your busy season gets over (working at home ) drop me a line. Once again thanks for the new cemetery records. I might have an addition or correction for your new volume. Sincerely, Walt & Jean Bateman (waltbateman37@hotmail.com)

(2) Hugh O. Burton, 505 Bloomfield Dr., Fayetteville NC 28311 looking for information of Goodman Darden, Annie Darden ca. 1890.

(3) After a recent phone call from Betty Selfridge, I decided to include the following info on Allens. A copy was snail-mailed to Betty with a word of caution, the information was gathered bit-by-bit from various people and sources and is a guide only. Anyone using the information should verify for themselves dates, places and source info such as volume and/or page numbers. A second word of caution: Betty's computer shut down and she lost everything, all her work over the years. Folks often say they don't worry about t-storms or whatever because they have surge protectors. Nothing works 100% of the time but to disconnect. And all of us know computers crash. The only sure way is to back-up, back-up, back-up. Been there - done that! (Shirleyan Phelps, Editor)
